

Revue De La Ville

MEMBERS of the Cup and Saucer club were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Jay Rogers at her home on Second avenue. Luncheon was followed by bridge. Jonquills were arranged in a crystal basket as a centerpiece for the table. The place cards were shamrocks. Covers were laid for Mrs. George Steiner, Mrs. Will Ellerbeck, Mrs. Howard H. Lawson, Mrs. Frank Dole, Mrs. R. K. Brown, Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh, Mrs. J. C. Dick, Mrs. C. E. Traver, Mrs. L. A. Evans, Mrs. Elridge Thomas, Mrs. George Aris, Mrs. J. H. Patrick and Mrs. W. H. Child.

A PRETTILY arranged home wedding was that of Miss Birdie Ridd and Joseph A. Nilson, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Ridd, 664 West Fourth North street, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. A. Simpkin and was followed by a reception. The bride wore a gown of cream-colored charmeuse with an overdress of Georgette crepe trimmed in pearls. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The living room was decorated in white carnations and snapdragons combined with palms and ferns. The supper table in the dining room had a centerpiece of pink carnations and snapdragons arranged in a basket. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Ridd, assisted by their daughters, Miss Alice Ridd and Miss Myrtle Ridd, and also by Mrs. Emma Player and Mrs. Ada Vincent. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. E. B. Ridd, Mrs. C. W. Ridd and Mrs. W. Larsen. Serving punch were Miss Hazel Smith, Miss Norma Nelson and Miss Lila Nelson. The couple will be at home after March 14 at 451 Eighth East street.

THE El Exito club was entertained Wednesday afternoon at luncheon and Kensington by Mrs. Fred Dust at her home on Lincoln avenue. Violets in a low bowl formed the centerpiece for the serving table. The place cards were shamrocks. Luncheon was served at small tables. Covers were laid for Mrs. Jack Anderson, Mrs. Albert Zobell, Mrs. Joseph Anderson, Mrs. C. A. Woolley, Mrs. Jenkin Thomas, Mrs. J. A. Powell, Mrs. King Thomas and Mrs. Will Anderson.

MISS FRANKIE JACOBSON entertained informally Wednesday evening at her home on East Fifth South street in honor of Miss Gladys Sims, a bride of the month. A late supper was served. Jonquills in a brass basket made an attractive centerpiece for the table. The place cards were hand-painted in jonquills. Covers were laid for eight close friends of the guest of honor.

SPIRIT of Liberty chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. F. E. Marcy at her home, 79

P street. Mrs. Taylor Woolley gave two piano numbers, including a waltz by Chopin and Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor." Miss Jane Sands gave two vocal selections, "Lisanwy" by Forster and "Yesterday and Today" by Sposa.

IN compliment to Miss Gladys Sims, an early spring bride, Miss Ferne Johnson entertained at cards and a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at the Johnson home, 233 Eleventh East street. Supper was served at one long table following the card games. A basket of pink and white roses was the centerpiece for the table. A cupid was suspended from the chandelier with satin ribbon, which extended to the corners of the table. The kewpie was enveloped in a shower of baby ribbon. The little sister of the hostess, Miss Billies Louis Johnson, dressed as Cupid, delivered the gifts for the bride from a basket adorned with pink ribbons. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Rufus Johnson. Covers were laid for the following, besides the guest of honor: Miss Irma Sims, Miss Grace Sims, Mrs. Carl Poll, Mrs. Reed Harvey, Miss Phyllis Goulet, Miss Maella Margetts, Miss Brita McDonald, Miss Afton McDonald, Miss Ethel Adams, Miss Edna Kay, Mrs. Wallace Carter, Miss Cora Quayle, Miss Leah Mehesy and Mrs. C. M. McDonald.

ST. PATRICK colors were carried out in the decoration for a tea, following the regular meeting of the Catholic Woman's league, at the Ladies' Literary club house Tuesday afternoon. Green carnations in a silver basket formed the central decoration for the tea table. A green maline bow was on the handle of the basket and shamrocks were scattered over the cloth. The committee on arrangements included Mrs. Timothy O'Connor, Mrs. J. J. Reilley, Mrs. P. H. Gaul and Mrs. Powers. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. J. A. Jenkins, Mrs. H. Hannigan, Mrs. J. F. Schraven and Mrs. N. C. Cronin, assisted by the following young girls, dressed as maids, with green caps and aprons: Miss Arta Burleigh, Miss Katherine Reilley, Miss Lucile Jenkins, Miss Marion Somo, Miss Maurine Nelson, Miss Grace Murphy, Miss Helen McCarthy, Miss Inez Long, Miss Evelyn Long, Miss Dorothy Beckstead, Miss Loretta Pierce, Miss Ruth O'Dea, Miss Elizabeth O'Connor and Miss Ethel Hoggan.

A PRETTILY arranged luncheon was given Tuesday by Mrs. F. M. Bishop at her home, 1590 Major avenue, in honor of Miss Esther Groesbeck, who became the bride of R. B. Parr on Wednesday. A potted shamrock was the centerpiece for the table and St. Patrick ideas were carried out in the place cards. Covers were laid for fifteen. The hostess was assisted by Miss Helen Groesbeck and Miss Alice Groesbeck.

MRS. FRED MONAHAN entertained Monday afternoon at her home, 1000 Ninth East street, with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. O. E. Jarrell, formerly Miss Merle Wolfe. The guests included Mrs. Henry Wolfe, Mrs. David Wolfe, Mrs. Roy Wolfe, Mrs. A. W. Frank, Mrs. Ida W. Hyatt, Miss Margaret Frank, Mrs. Ernest Hawkins, Mrs. W. R. White, Mrs. E. A. Payne, Mrs. Fred Monahan, Sr., Miss Ruth Wolfe, Miss Evelyn Frank, Mrs. Donald Shaw and Mrs. S. A. Abbott.

MRS. D. C. JACKLING, wife of Colonel D. C. Jackling, the copper king, is to place Miss Marjorie Josselyn of San Francisco in the hall of fame of the local literati by publishing one of the latter's stories in an edition de luxe, limited to fifteen volumes, says the San Francisco Bulletin. The story concerns the tour of South America which the Jacklings and thirteen of their San Francisco and New York friends, including Miss Josselyn, made about two years ago. Miss Josselyn, who recently returned as a war worker from Paris, never intended her story for publication. Mrs. Jackling and her husband, however, found the tale so readable and picturesque that they finally prevailed upon the author to permit them to have it published in an elegant illustrated volume for the pleasure of her companions on that tour. The Jackling tour started from San Francisco in Jackling's yacht, the Cyprus, which sailed 17,300 miles by way of the Strait of Magellan and Buenos Aires before it reached New York, where it was then taken over by the government for the war purposes of the American navy. The party left the yacht for a week or more in Chile, where it caused a mild sensation by chartering a special train, at a cost of $6 in gold per mile, for a thousand-mile journey through that republic. This was an unusual trip in that far away land, and its newspapers made much "copy" of the Jackling special train, the Jackling mining career, the beauty and talent of the women members of the party, the simplicity of its dining car menus and also about the remarkable daily cigar consumption of Colonel Charles N. Black, a prominent member of the party, who had just resigned as the general manager of the street railway system of San Francisco. These and other happenings of the tour were said to be touched upon by the deft pen of Miss Josselyn, whose father, Charles Josselyn, by his book on "Napoleon" and other writings, has long been a member of the San Francisco literary hall of fame. Some of the members of the party, in addition to the Jacklings and Miss Josselyn, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin and Dr. Herbert W. Allen of this city, and Charles Hayden and Judge K. R. Babbitt of New York.

Mrs. C. C. Dey entertained a few friends informally at bridge Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. William R. Foster, who will leave Thursday for her home in Winona, Minn. A late supper was served. White hyacinths and daffodils were combined in a centerpiece for the supper table. The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Marion Foss and Miss Phoebe Dey. The guests numbered twelve. Mrs. Foss entertained a few friends at dinner Saturday evening in compliment to Mrs. Foster.

The regular monthly meeting of the intermountain chapter of the Cooper Ornithological club and the Utah Audubon society was held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the reading room of the Deseret gymnasium. Professor J. H. Paul talked on "Orchard Defenders" and Ashby D. Boyle reviewed Beebe's book, "The Bird."

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Johnson, Mrs. Gail Hall, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blud, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hall and Mrs. Murray from Salt Lake, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hawes from Logan were registered recently at the Baltimore hotel, Los Angeles.

Salt Lakers in Los Angeles who are stopping at the Hotel Lankershim are B. C. Culp and family.

Salt Lakers at the Hotel Clark of Los Angeles include Mrs. John W. Walsh, Mrs. C. A. Lemke, Mrs. A. E. Custer, Miss Lucille Custer, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Molster and Dr. T. C. and Mrs. Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Whitney, Miss Marion Whitney of this city, during a recent visit to Long Beach, Cal., stopped at the Hotel Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Windle, R. A. Hopkins and Miss B. Fullmer, all of this city, have been guests at the Merrit Jones hotel of Ocean Park, Cal.

The marriage of Mrs. Mabel Wheeler of Salt Lake to T. Jefferson Kane of New York, which took place at Farmington Tuesday, is announced.

Hon. James Robinson of Montreal, on his way home from Southern California, will arrive in Salt Lake City next Tuesday to visit his sister, Mrs. George K. Smith, 919 East First South street. Mr. Robinson is known in Canada and the east as a shoe and rubber king.

The Daughters of the Mormon Battalion held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Laura B. Holman, No. 11 Kesler apartments, Wednesday afternoon. A sketch of the life of Captain John Sutter was given by Mrs. Sarah Reynolds. Miss Annie Williams gave vocal selections.